It is a new address but the same Community Foundation, committed to improving the lives of Lake County residents.

The Lake County Community Foundation, an affiliate of The Chicago Community Trust, is the vehicle that builds strategic alliances and educates donors about the challenges in the county, helping develop simple, powerful and personal approaches to giving right here at home. Since 2003, the Foundation has awarded and/or facilitated grants to more than 100 Lake County organizations, totaling over $1,000,000.
